

Funded by the Training of National Judges Programme of the European Commission

Seminar on European Competition Law for National Judges

The Role of National Judges in Antitrust Litigation in the Light of the EU Damages Directive

24 – 25 FEBRUARY 2017, BUDAPEST (HUNGARY)

SEMINAR SPEAKER'S SHORT BIOGRAPHIES (1/2)

MR. IESTYN WILLIAMS
PARTNER, RBB ECONOMICS

Iestyn Williams is a Partner in RBB Economics' London office. He has many years of experience providing economics advice across a diverse range of competition law settings, and in preparing expert reports for court and tribunal proceedings. He has also provided training and prepared studies for competition authorities, including co-authoring a recent study for the European Commission on the passing-on of overcharges. After undergraduate studies at Cambridge University, Iestyn obtained MSc and PhD degrees from the London School of Economics, and was an academic economist before embarking on his consulting career.

UNIV.-PROF. DR. GEORG KODEK
JUDGE, AUSTRIAN SUPREME COURT

Georg E. Kodek studied law at the University of Vienna and at Northwestern University School of Law. In 1991, he was appointed a district court judge in Vienna. After serving at the superior court of Eisenstadt and the Vienna Court of Appeals, in 2006 he was appointed to the Austrian Supreme Court. In addition, he is professor of civil and commercial law at the Vienna University of Economics and Business. He has published extensively in the fields of civil and commercial law and civil procedure law.

DR. MARTIN SEEGER
SENIOR LEGAL COUNSEL AND PARTNER, CDC CARTEL DAMAGE CLAIMS CONSULTING

Martin is a Partner at CDC Cartel Damage Claims Consulting. He studied law in Cologne, Paris and Washington D.C. He wrote a PhD thesis on damage claims under European and International Law. Prior to joining CDC in 2007, Martin worked with the competition practice group of Linklaters and the Competition Directorate of the European Commission. He publishes on and teaches private enforcement of competition law. His responsibilities include the coordination and management of Europe-wide damage actions.

Seminar on European Competition Law for National Judges

The Role of National Judges in Antitrust Litigation in the Light of the EU Damages Directive

24 – 25 FEBRUARY 2017, BUDAPEST (HUNGARY)

SEMINAR SPEAKER'S SHORT BIOGRAPHIES (2/2)

MS. SABINE ZIGELSKI

SENIOR COMPETITION EXPERT, OECD

Design and realisation of capacity building assistance and policy advice through workshops, seminars and training programmes on competition law and policy for officials in competition enforcement agencies and other parts of government mainly in East and South East Europe, sector regulators, judges and the Hungarian competition authority GVH. Prior to joining the OECD Sabine worked as senior case manager at the German Bundeskartellamt for more than 20 years and has extensive enforcement experience in all areas of competition law.

MR. TAMÁS SZÁMADÓ

HEAD OF THE LITIGATION SECTION OF THE GVH

Tamás Számadó works at the GVH since 2010 now being head of the Litigation Section representing the GVH before the administrative court in proceedings against its decisions. Earlier as head of Legal Section was responsible for GVH's replying national courts' amicus curiae requests, and also took part in the Hungarian expert team counselling the government representatives during the negotiations on the damages directive at the Council. Before joining GVH, he worked at the Hungarian Ministry of Justice, taking part in the works on translating the acquis communautaire into Hungarian, and after Hungary's accession was responsible for monitoring and co-ordinating proper and timely transposition of EU legislation in Hungary. Besides these he was leading some codification works of horizontal nature in the field of consumer protection and legislation governing services. He obtained a degree in law at Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest in 2001.

MR. VIVIEN TERRIEN

RÉFÉRENDAIRE, PRESIDENT JAEGER'S CHAMBERS, GENERAL COURT OF THE EU

Vivien Terrien works as a référéndaire for Marc Jaeger, President of the General Court of the EU. Before joining the Court in 2009, Vivien practiced as a competition lawyer in Paris at Linklaters and, then, in Brussels at WilmerHale. In addition to writing articles on EU litigation, antitrust and institutional law topics and lecturing at the Paris II Panthéon Assas and Lorraine Universities, he regularly intervenes as a speaker on competition law matters for the OECD, the Academy of European Law (ERA) and before the Chinese competition authorities. Vivien qualified as a Paris and New York attorney after obtaining law degrees from Harvard Law School, the College of Europe, and the Universities of Paris II Panthéon Assas and Nantes.